2019 Double L Syrah

“One of the things I really appreciate about Morgan is their intent to let vintage variation play a major role in their vineyard designate wines. I think this lower brix at harvest choice lets Syrah’s best characteristics shine, and this delivers what I’m after - black and blue fruit, white pepper and a savory meaty note are bold on the nose and in the mouth, and the lively coastal climate driven acidity keeps things light, bright and food friendly...”
